What is your role and responsibility?

"Deputy General Manager of Safety for MV Transportation. I am responsible for the Safety & Training for the Bus operations of the North County Transit District."

What is your greatest workforce health or safety challenge?

"Our biggest challenge is that transit bus operators work in a challenging environment that can lead to negative health outcomes for drivers and challenges for our organization due to health care costs, absenteeism, high levels of turnover, and workers' compensation payments."

What health or safety campaign has been most successful?

"Our most successful Safety campaign to date has been our driver behavior coaching through DriveCam. We are seeing great improvement in our risky behaviors."

Is your partnership with WorkPartners successful?

"WorkPartners has been great with taking care of our employees. We are partnering with WorkPartners on projects that will continue that success going forward."

What is your leadership philosophy?

"I lead my team by modeling Integrity, Humility and Teamwork."

What was the last good management book you read?

"Blue-collar Leadership by Mack Story."

What is your favorite business quote?

"Until we can lead ourselves well, we don't deserve to lead others at all."
